

Dear fcc,

I am very skeptical that allowing major media to own more outlets in any area will improve the publics knowledge of news or other beneficial programing. since there is so much programming already for entertainment, news is the only critical feature and it will not be improved by consolidation of media ownership.

Please block any further loosening of rules on who can own what media in a market. thanks,

Mike Purdy